

PLACE

The 5 Best Avocado Toasts in Downtown Manhattan

Avoca-don't you want some more toast? Hell yeah I do!

March 01, 2018

I'm obviously late (like always) to this trend of "avocado toasts", but it's better late than never, right? I can understand why someone like myself is so hooked on the trend. I mean, come on: the fatty goodness of the smashed avocado slaps your face right when you hit that crunch of the warm toasted slice of toast — there's a slight tang from the lemons, smoothness from the avocados, and a perfect crunch from the bread. And, of course, when the cafe adds a perfectly poached eggs on top with the yolk running all over the place? It's almost too good to handle. No wonder we all are salivating over a damn piece of toast. That's why I'm bringing you the five best spots in our good ole' downtown NYC to go check out and get your addiction to avocado toasts going!

5. Coco & Cru

643 Broadway, New York, NY 10012

Vivian Zhu

The one word to describe this toast is "explosion". There's so many things going on: zesty limes, smokey mozzarella, onion, you name it. There's a lot more going on here than your basic avocado toast, for sure. The onions just add this kick of sweetness, and that smoked mozzarella is something I haven't seen on an avocado toast elsewhere. It's the perfect mix of smokey, sour, and sweet flavors all in one toast. As a bonus, if you are ever alone for lunch, this is the perfect spot to eat at: They have a nice window-bar, allowing you to look out the window and drift away onto the city streets. Good food, good alone time!